PRIVACY POLICY

pursuant to Article 13 and the relevant recitals of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulation") and Act of the National Council of the Slovak Republic No. 18/2018 Coll. on the protection of personal data and on amendments to certain laws (hereinafter referred to as the "Act on the Protection of Personal Data")

The purposes of processing personal data are the reasons for which the personal data of the data subjects (employees, clients, passengers) are processed in our information systems on precisely defined legal grounds. The purposes are specifically defined, explicitly stated and legitimate, and when processing the personal data of the data subjects, we comply with the principle of lawfulness pursuant to Articles 6 and 9 of the Regulation (individual purposes and legal grounds are listed in the Annex to this Privacy Policy).

Data subjects whose personal data are processed in our information systems for specifically defined purposes may exercise the following rights in writing or electronically:

- a) Right of access to personal data – this is the right to obtain confirmation as to whether your personal data are being processed, as well as the right to obtain access to these data, in terms of the purposes and duration of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the recipients, the procedure for any automated processing, and the consequences of such processing. As a controller, we have the right to use all reasonable measures to verify the identity of the data subject requesting access to the data, in particular in relation to online services and identifiers (Article 15, recitals 63, 64 of the Regulation).
- b) The right to have inaccurate personal data rectified and incomplete personal data completed (Article 16, Recital 65 of the Regulation).
- c) Right to erasure – "forgetting" personal data that are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected and processed; upon withdrawal of consent on the basis of which the processing is carried out; upon unlawful processing; if personal data were collected in connection with an information society offer (in the case of children), provided that the conditions set out in Article 17, recitals 65, 66 of the Regulation are met.
- d) The right to restriction of processing can be exercised if, as a data subject, you contest the accuracy of personal data and other requirements pursuant to Article 18, Recital 67 of the Regulation, in the form of temporary transfer of selected personal data to another processing system, prevention of users' access to selected personal data, or temporary removal of processing.
- e) The right to data portability is the right to have the personal data you have provided to our information systems, based on your consent or the performance of a contract, transferred to another controller in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, if technically feasible and subject to the conditions of Article 20 Recital 68 of the Regulation, if the processing is carried out by automated means. The exercise of this right is without prejudice to Article 17 of the Regulation. The right to data portability does not apply to processing necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us as the controller.

- f) Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedies, you as a data subject have the right to file a complaint with the Personal Data Protection Office of the Slovak Republic pursuant to Article 77 of the Regulation if you believe that the processing of personal data concerning you is in breach of the Regulation or the Personal Data Protection Act.

As a data subject, you also have the right to object at any time, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to processing of your personal data which is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us as the controller, and also where processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us as the controller or by a third party (except for processing carried out by public authorities in the performance of their tasks), except where such interests are overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms as the data subject which require protection of personal data (in particular where the data subject is a child).

If personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, you as the data subject have the right to object at any time to the processing of your personal data for the purposes of such direct marketing, including profiling to the extent it is related to such direct marketing.
